

WILLIAM FELTON, JR.

BIOGRAPHY

William Felton was born in Americus, GA in 1982. He was raised by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William and Elnora Felton. He is the oldest of 4, Whinlesha, Keon and Deon. William graduated from Macon County High School and attended Albany State University on an academic and football scholarship. William was a standout student-athlete for Albany State and won two conference championships including an undefeated regular season his senior year. While at Albany State, William earned many awards and was a member of the 100 Black Men program where he served as a mentor for elementary kids. He graduated from Albany State with honors with a Degree in Psychology.

William moved to Atlanta to train for a professional career with the NFL. After not making a team, William decided to start Coaching at Decatur High School in 2008. In 2016, William Graduated with a Master's Degree in Education with hopes of becoming a Head Coach one day. He started as a position coach and was named the Varsity Head Coach in 2020. In his three seasons as head coach, William led the team to their first trip to the playoffs in over 15 years, made it to the second round of the playoffs and has won the first region title since 2004. In 2022, William graduated with a Master's Degree in Addiction Counseling to help further his career as a therapist. William has been working as an educator and a Mental Health Therapist for the last 4 years. He has always worked in a capacity where he was able to serve others. As an educator, therapist, head coach, husband, and most importantly a father, William has truly dedicated himself to improving the lives of others and being a positive role model for everyone to see.

William is married to Mrs. Jasmin L. Felton. They have been together for over 13 years. They have their daughter, Channing M. Taylor-Felton, who is a sophomore in high school and son, Jaxon V. Felton, who is a fourth grader.